ORDER:

In the reference 3rd read above, guidelines were issued on Jeevandhan Scheme. Wherein, Criteria for allocation of organs – Section 11.5.2 describe the Technical process (priorities) for allocation of organs. As per Section 11.5.2 (3), the kidney will be allocated to the patients listed as per the date of registration with Jeevandhan. As per provision of Para 11.5.2, there is no proviso for out of turn allocation for kidney recipients. A request has been made that in cases of transplanted kidney failure i.e., where kidney already transplanted has failed and thus leading to very serious medical condition of the recipient in such cases they should get higher priority over others coming under special situation indicated under Section 11.5.2(1).

2. Government after careful examination of the matter has decided and hereby order to issue the following amendment to G.O.Ms.No.184, Health, Medical & Family Welfare (M1) Department dt.16.08.2010, to insert a proviso to section 11.5.2(5) (3), as follows:-

“Provided that the recipient of kidney transplantation will be given out of turn allocation in cases, where the transplanted kidney has failed and the patient (recipient) medical condition is serious to an extent of treat to his life”
